The HUFF Family

Douglas Sprague a great great grandson of Paul Huff, U.E.L. settler on the south shore of Hay Bay in 1784, conducted a lengthy research into the origin and descendents of the Huguenot ancestors of the Huff family.

The first known Huff came to America prior to 1707, in the person of Engelbert Huff, a Norwegian member of the Life Guards of William of Orange, who later became King William III of England.

Soon after his arrival in America he married Maria (Maritie) Willems (Dutch) born about 1690 at Tarrytown, N. Y. to Robert ~~and~~ Willems Zen and Grace (Greesze) Cerant (believed to have been the early spelling of Ceniff or Caniff).

Engelbert Huff died at the ripe old age of 128 years on March 21, 1765 at Fishkill, N. Y. and was buried near the east wall of the Reformed Dutch Church at nearby Hopewell.

The known family of Engelbert and Maria:-
Greesze b. 1708, married Zibout Crancheyt; Leonhardt b. 1709, married (1) Phoebe Ferris, (2) Cornelia VanTassle; Maria, b. 1712; William b. 1714, married Elizabeth Retan (or Ruttan); Ann Margareta b. 1716; Helena b. 1717; Mara b. 1724; Johanis b. 1726; Abraham b. 1729.

The family of William and Elizabeth (Retan) Huff:-

b. 1742; b.1751.

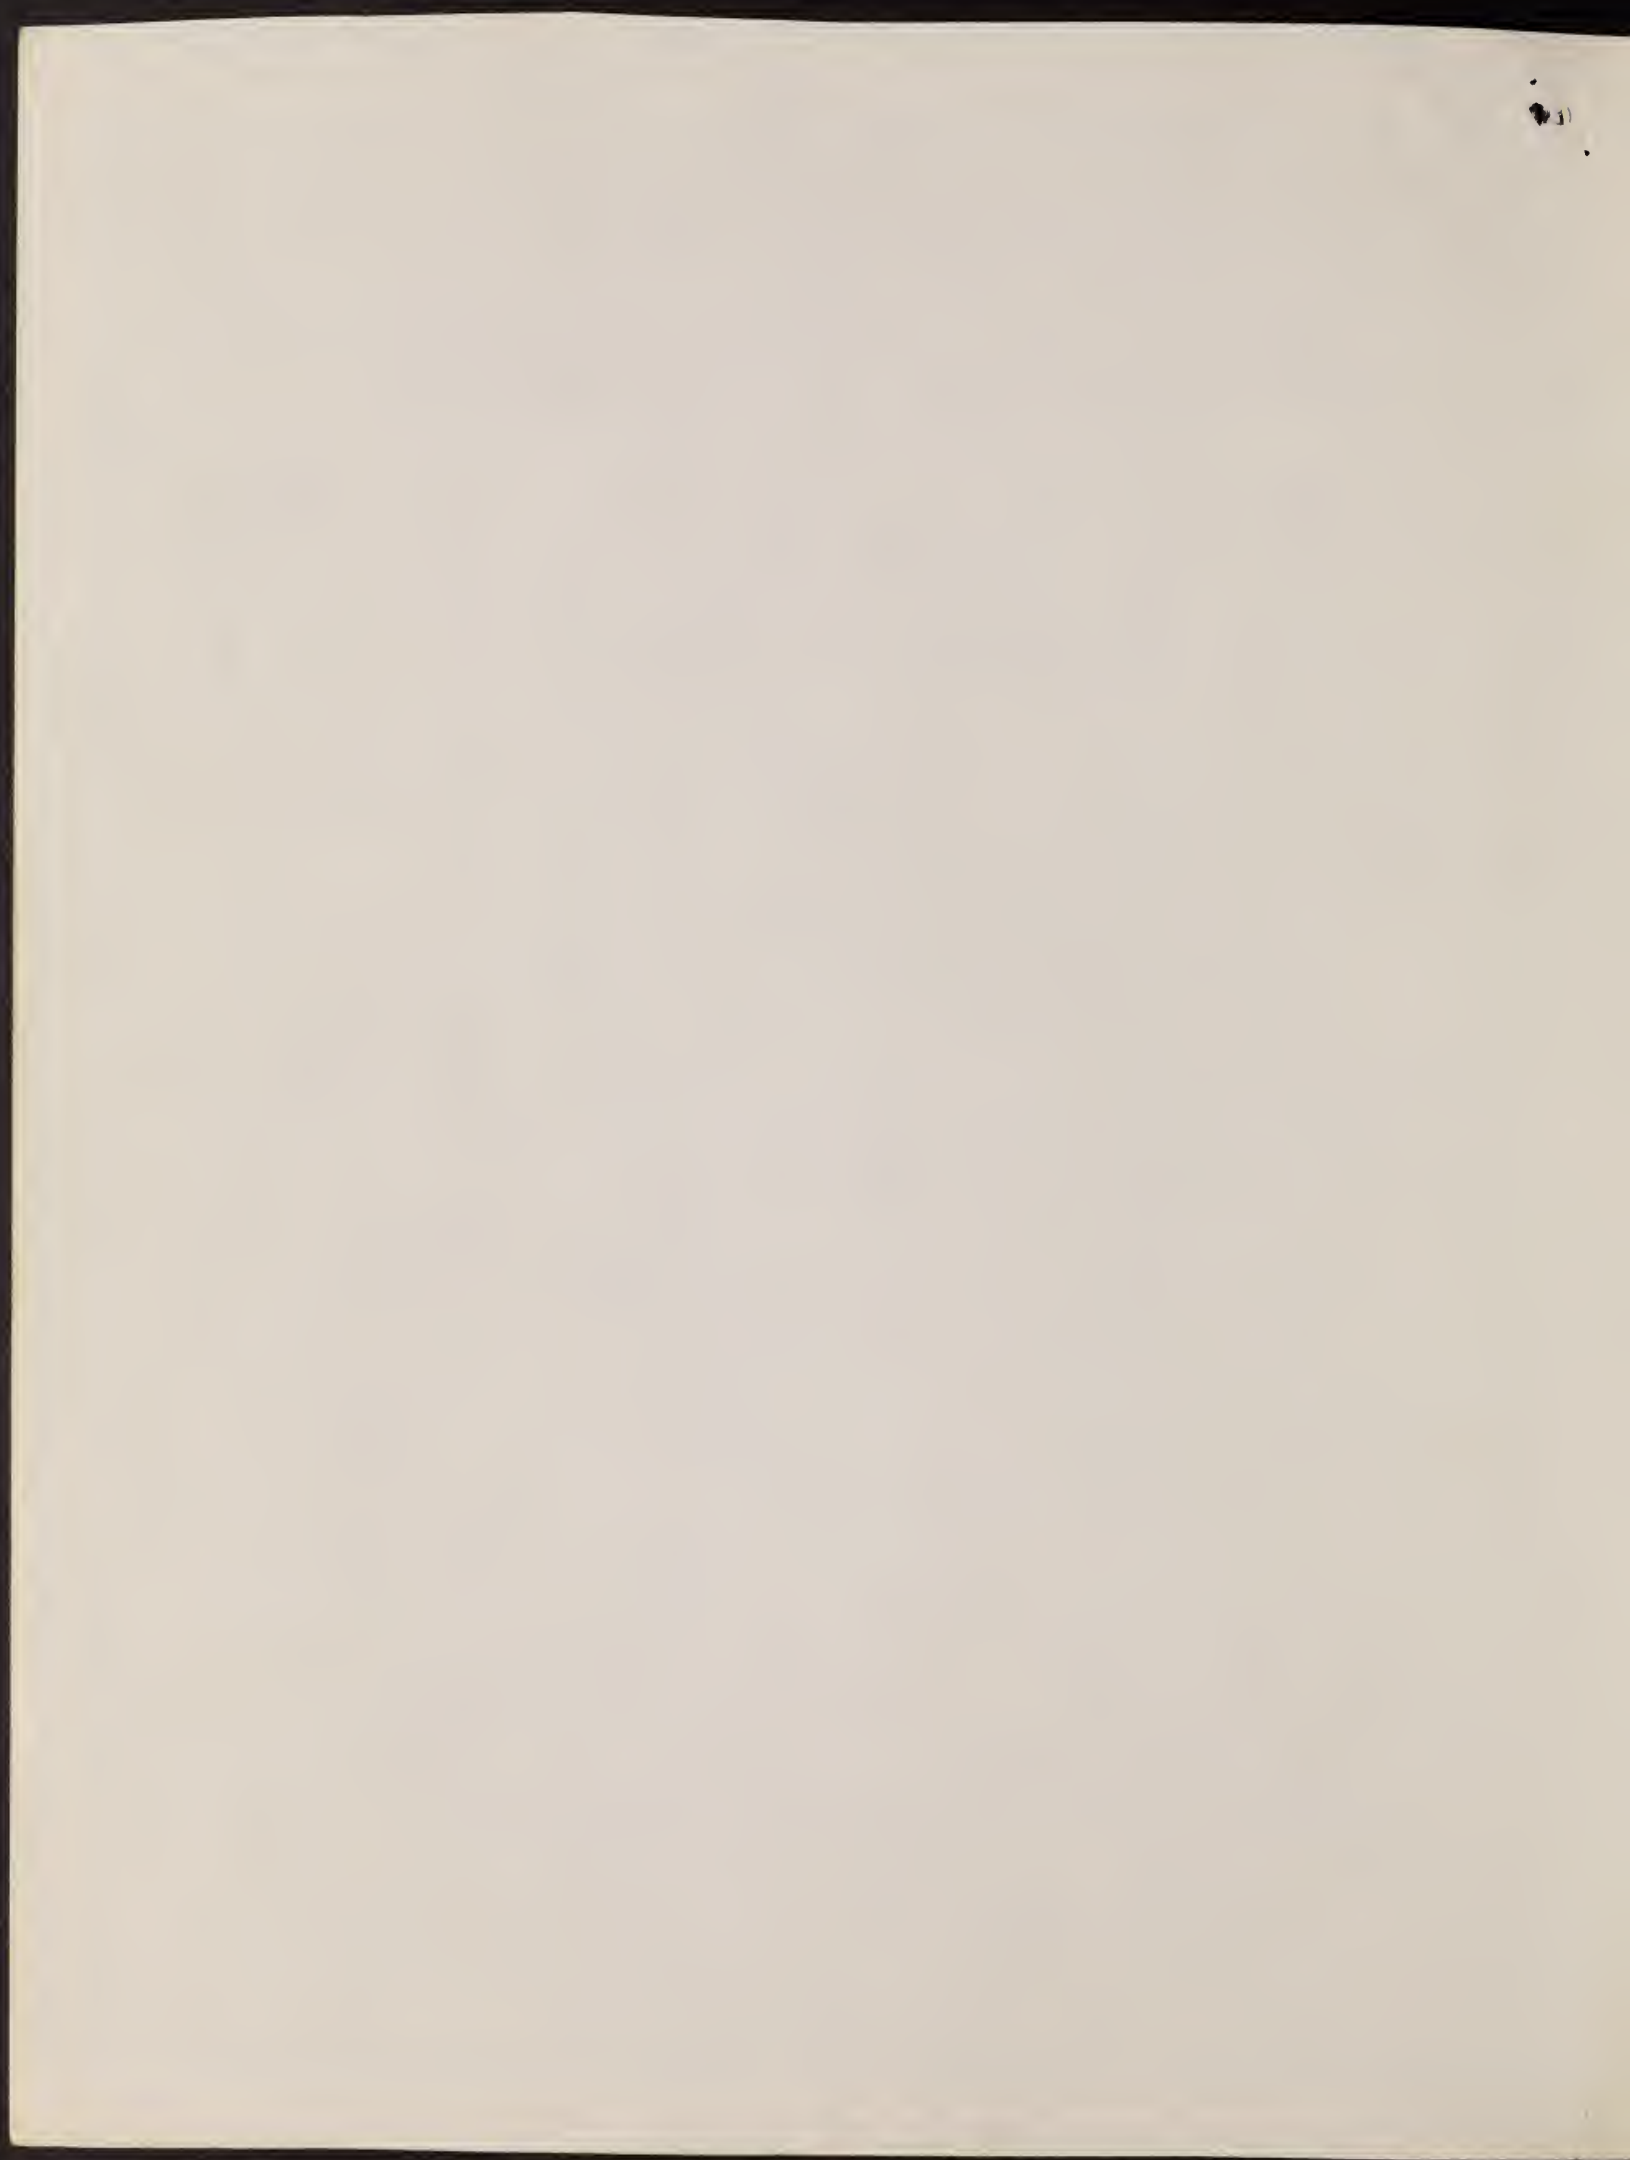

Lieutenant Paul Huff served with the Loyalists in Colonel Horton's company. He was officially mustered out at Kingston in October 1784. With his wife, Mary Cronk, and at least five of their children, Paul Huff left New York in the Fall of 1783 aboard ship for refuge in Canada. They spent a very discouraging winter at Sorel, Que.; came through to Kingston in the Spring and finally arrived at Adolphustown June 16, 1784. Their party was under direction of Major Peter VanAlstine.

The family of Paul and Mary (Polly) Huff were:-

Solomon (1769-1842); William Moore Huff b. 1779; James (1774-1840);
Charles b. 1778; Elizabeth b. 1782
Solomon, b. 1769 married Sarah Alger of New Brunswick;
William " daughter of a pioneer family;
James " Amy Garrison;
Charles died unmarried;
Elizabeth died unmarried.

Lieut. Paul Huff's younger brother, Solomon (1751-1828) was married to Eva Swade (1757-) in close proximity to the present site of New York City. At the outbreak of the War of 1766-1783, Solomon is reported to have owned and operated a farm of 200 acres on land now a part of that great city. Unlike his brothers, Solomon was a neutral until a rebel raiding party pillaged his farm and property. He then joined the British troops and served throughout the duration of the war. It is said he procured an old bald-faced horse which helped him to remove his family and goods to Kingston, later proceeding to Adolphustown, where he drew a lot on Hay Bay shore but exchanged it for one in the second concession. ~~Thi~~

Besides the Paul and Solomon, there were two other sons (of William and Elizabeth Retan Huff), John and Angus, who remained in the U. S. The War of the Independence was the cause of the dispersal of the Huffs. Solomon Huff (who owned the 200 acres where New York City is now located) refused to join the Continental troops when they demanded it so they ~~confiscated~~ drove off his stock and took his horses. After he joined the British troops, his property was confiscated.

Lieut. Paul Huff also served throughout the Revolutionary struggle, then accompanied his brother to Canada and settled at Hay Bay. His name appears in the Canadian Archives for 1791 as being one of those mustered out of service Oct. 5, 1784 and in the list of pioneer owners of land at Adolphustown as given in the books of the Crown Land Dept.; it is recorded that Lieut. Paul Huff was, on May 17, 1802, granted a patent for 200 acres of land.

He was a pioneer supporter of the Methodist Church in Upper Canada. It was in his house that the first Methodist Class in the province was formed in 1791 by Wm. Lossee. On his farm at Hay Bay, the first Methodist Church was built in Upper Canada. (1768 or)

Paul's eldest son, Solomon (born 1769 in U.S.) was 16 years of age when they came to Canada. In 1800 he moved to Huff's Island. While moving to their island home in winter and crossing the ice with all their goods, the ice gave way. Although they saved their family and team, they lost their household effects and 4 barrels of pork. Elisha was a small boy at the time.

Solomon Huff was the first white man to cut a stick of wood on Huff's Island. He carried on an extensive lumber business, at times employing as many as 60 men. At the time he settled on Huff's Island, it was occupied by about 50 Mississauga Indian families whose chief was Jim Chippigaw.

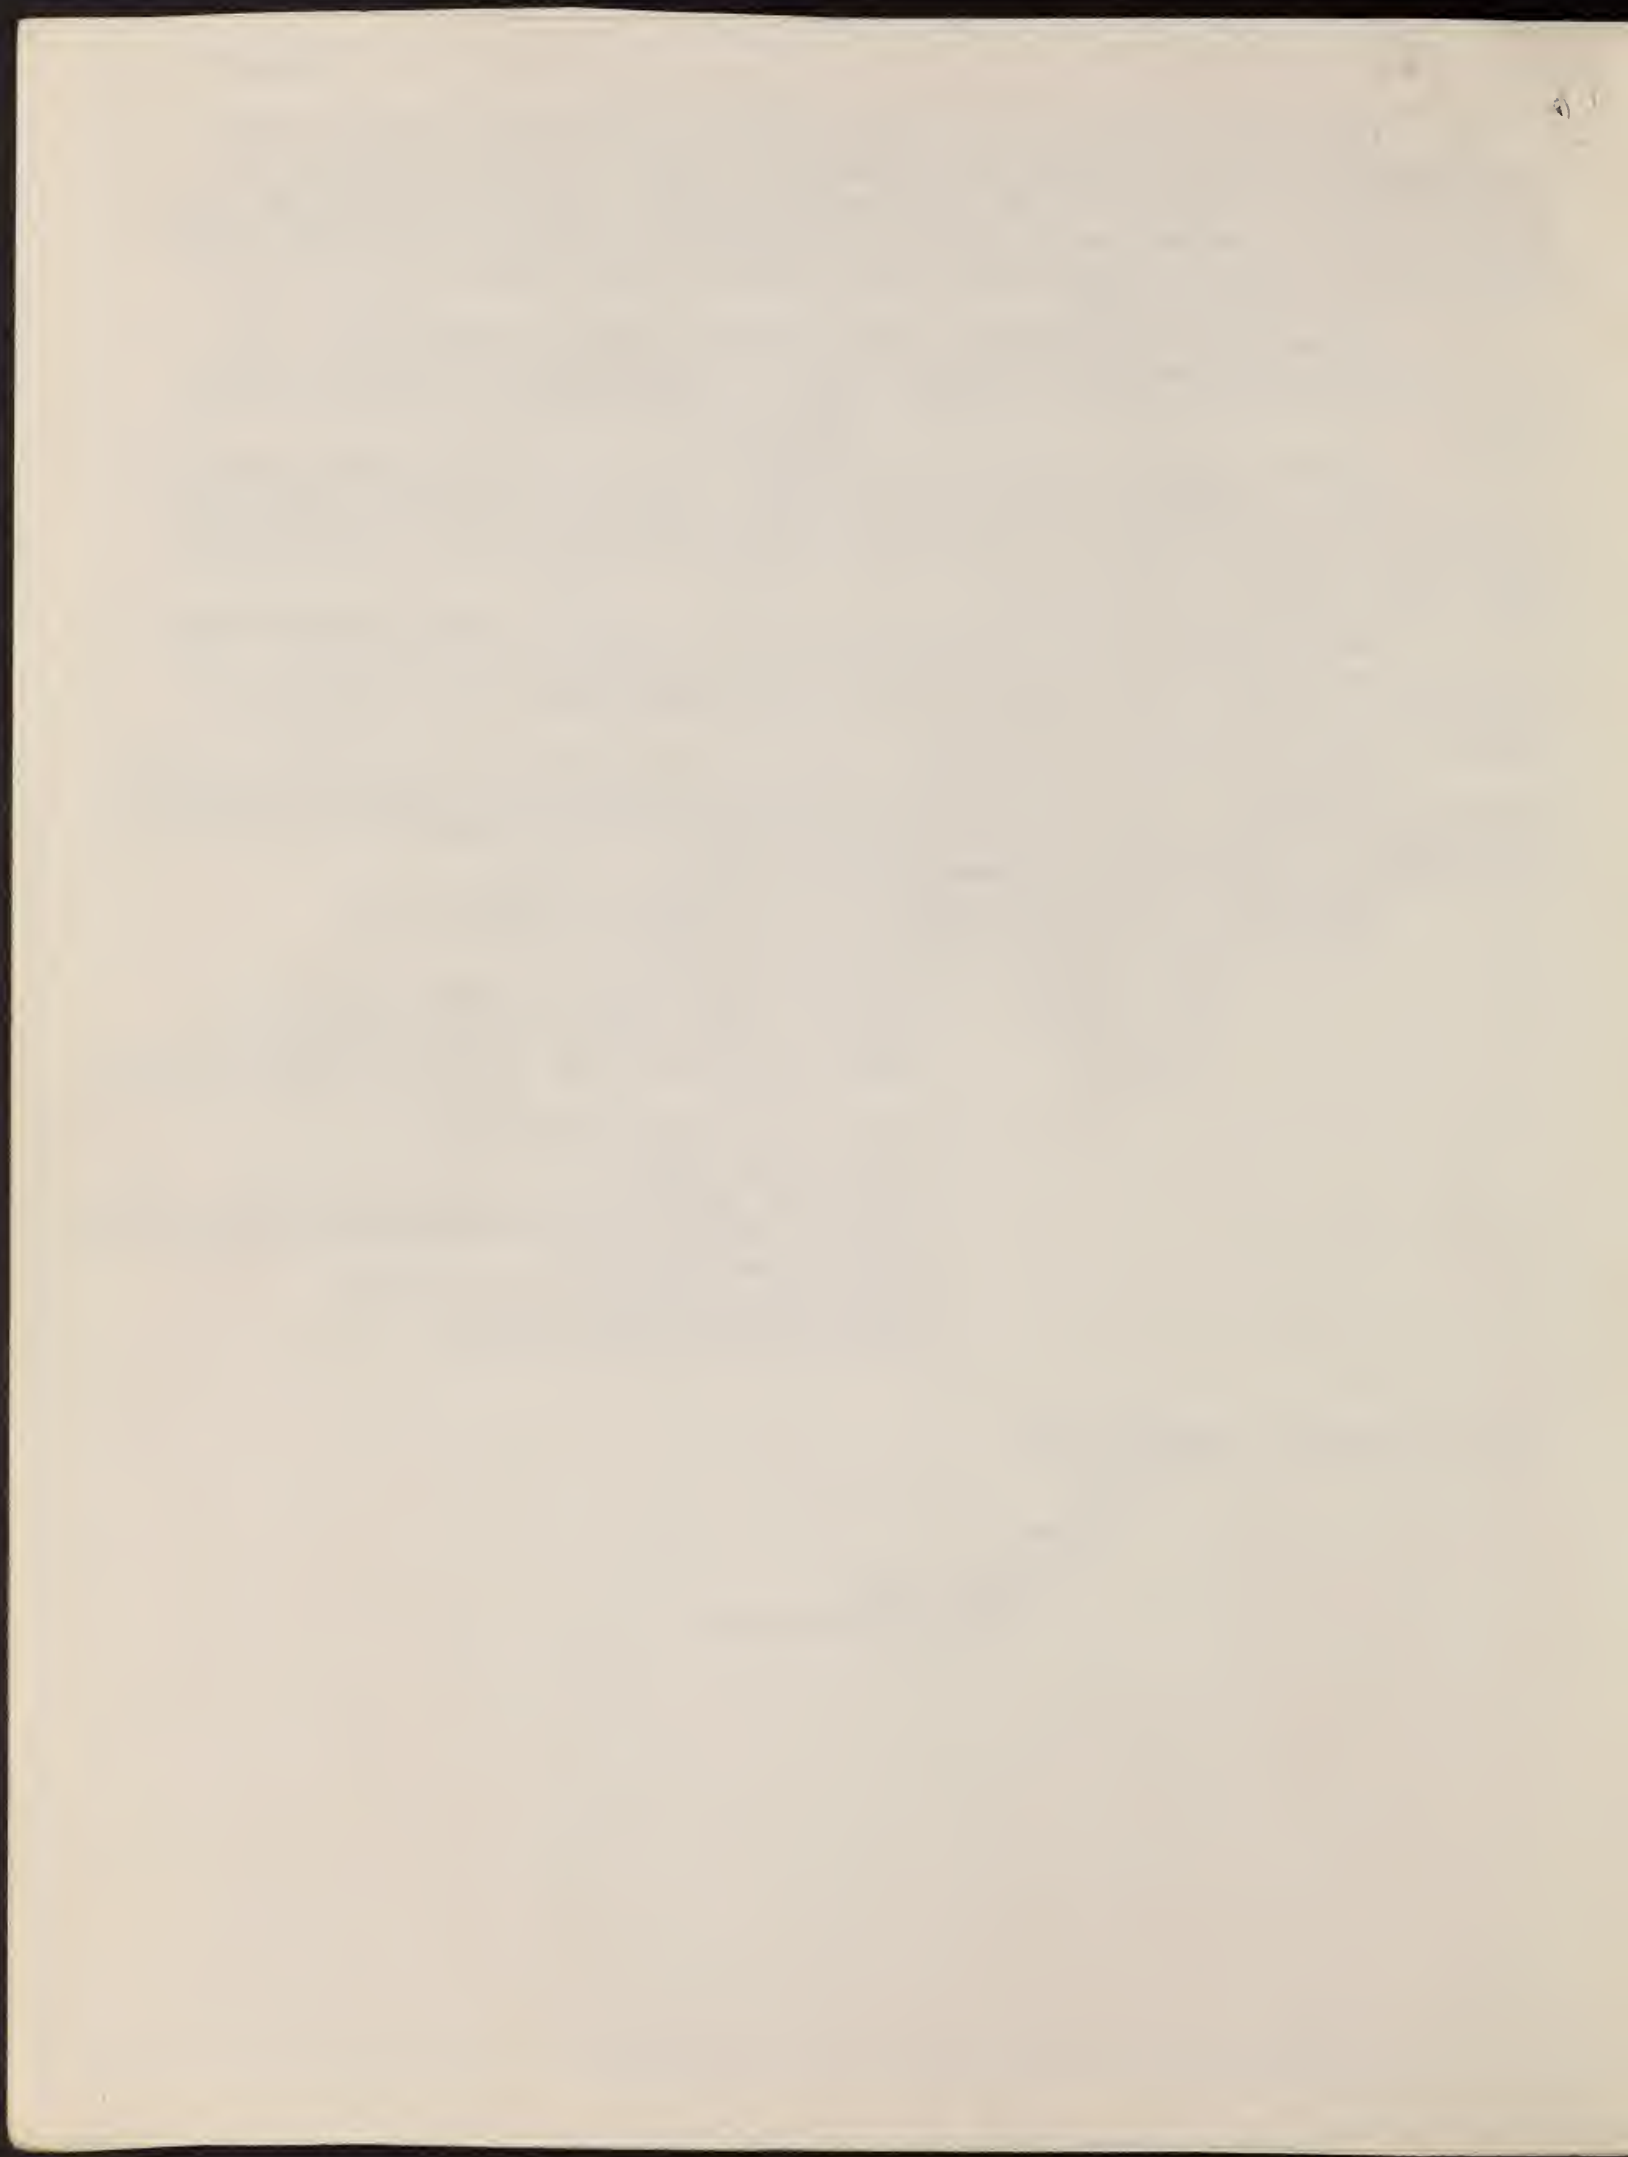

Solomon Huff died May 21, 1842 through his boat being capsized while crossing the Bay to Belleville. His sons, James and Abraham, carried on the business. Another son, Elisha, worked a place on the High Shore, adjoining the Pearsoll farm (now H.H. Huff's farm--now, since 1960, Mary and Hudson Huff's farm).?

Elisha Huff (1798-1879) served in the Rebellion of 1837.

Dear Sir:

Dr. Richard Eckels suggested that perhaps in the United Empire Loyalist Association there might be records that could help me prove my connection with four of the above names; Bissell, Merrick, Galloway and Heck.

I am enclosing sheets showing my lines on all eight families. If I am eligible for membership on all, or any, of these lines, I would appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,

4. That the said Effie Sophia Bissell was the daughter of William Albert Bissell, born in Brockville, Ontario, Canada on 6 Apr. 1843, died in Hemingford, Nebr., U.S.A., on 1914, and Eliza Jane Knapp his wife, born in Augusta, Ontario, Canada on 19 July 1847, died in Alliance, Nebr., U.S.A. on 12 Aug. 1902, married Dec. 1867 in Prescott, Ontario, Canada.
5. That the said William Albert Bissell was the son of John Bissell, born in Ontario, Canada on 9 Aug. 1803, died 11 Jan. 1877, and Lydia Merrick his wife.
6. I have not as yet been able to find proof whether the above John Bissell was the grandson or son of David Bissell UEL. In "Data on United Empire Loyalists", collected by W. D. Reid, Vol. 1, page 42, it lists "John" as a son of David. It gives the date of Order in Council as 28 Oct. 1835. That would fit my "John", as his first child was born in 1839 in Ontario, Canada. I have found in Vital records of Salisbury, and Sharon, Connecticut, that David Bissell UEL, born in Litchfield, Conn. on 17 Jan. 1742, married in Sharon, Conn. on 14 Feb. 1767, Sarah Goodrich, who was born 20 June 1750. If my "John" is a son of this David, it is quite likely that David married a second time. Sarah (Goodrich) Bissell would have been 53 years old at the time of John's birth. The following children of David Bissell were born in Salisbury, Conn.: Jehial, b 1767; Elisha, b 1768, who remained in Sharon, Conn.; David, b 1770; Ira, b 1772; Sarah, b 1773; Bette, b 1775, and Friend, b 1776. David Bissell UEL also had Edward, Zenas, b 1780, Catharine (Reid says was born 1786 in Conn.), John, and five daughters whose names are unknown to me. David Bissell's sons: Jehial, Friend, David, Edward, Zenas and John (Leavitt's History of Leeds and Grenville), are the same names as those found in my great grandfather's papers as "The old stock of Bissells". This was found in the family Bible of John Bissell #6, written on a piece of paper in what my mother (#3) says is William Albert Bissell's (her grandfather) handwriting. It is believed John Bissell is buried in Merrickville, but no Proof has been found. Lydia Merrick is also supposed to be descended from the Merricks that founded Merrickville, Ont., Can., and it is likely to be true, since at least one of her children were born in Merrickville, but as yet no proof has been found. In the 1819 Census there is a Stephen and Margaret Merrick who had a daughter Mary, b 1811. Could her name have been Mary Lydia?
